

Helping Haiti by Buying Haitian Art

Trade not aid - www.why-haiti.org

Update : 8th October 2016

As you know, Haiti was hit by the Category 4 Hurricane Matthew on Monday 3rd & 4th October 2016. Despite several shelters being set up pre-hurricane and tens of thousands moving to them, over 800 people are dead and 350,000 homeless. This is expected to rise as rescue teams are still to reach certain areas. 1/3 of the country is affected. The population is 11m.

Haiti needs you. Please support through your favourite charity, by booking a holiday in 2017, by buying Haitian produce.

My vision is to have Haitian art in over 1,000 peoples homes or offices and to sell £10,000 worth of art. Check out a live FaceBook video I made

I invite you to buy art from my site www.why-haiti.org and this money will be used to buy the arts and craft from Haitians at grass root level – most of whom have been affected by the Hurricane. This will inject cash into the economy and put money directly into their hands. It will help those affected to cope with their losses and allow them to plot their own destiny.

I have £900 worth of art with me to get going and I have some art being sent to me by my family. I also plan to visit personally in October/November. By end November, I will post you your purchase allowing you to have Christmas presents for friends, and family or some art for your home or office.

Please note that Your Tourism Partner Ltd will cover my costs such as flights and accommodation, and your purchase will cover packing and postage from Haiti.

I need you purchase today to give Haiti Trade Not Aid. If each of you buy £10, I need 1,000 partners. However, if you can buy £100 worth, then I just need 100 partners. Partner Haiti today through trade not aid.

Please note that canvass pictures will come unframed. Rough frame costs £20 extra due to the bulk factor and added fragility when shipping. These frames are as bought.

We will endeavour to customise your requirements, however, the artists may have lost a lot, so choice may be limited.

The following pictures are reference only, but I am happy to sell them to increase the money raised. These are all from my personal collection. The rum bottle (750ml) and flags help to give an indication of size.

I have rum bottles for sale at £30, Haitian Rebo coffee at £ 5 per bag and The Bradt Guide to Haiti retails at £16 (but reduced to £10 if you buy £ 20 or more worth of art).

All items are hand made and are one offs.

To purchase simply go to <https://www.gofundme.com/BuyHaitianArt> and in the remarks section include your name, address, tel and e-mail. Also state the codes that you want to buy (see next 3 pages below for the codes).

Ansem nou kapab ! (together we can). esi an pil (thank you).
